A. WHEREAS the Proceedings were commenced by the BC Plaintiff in British Columbia, the Quebec Plaintiff in Quebec and the Ontario Plaintiff in Ontario;

B. AND WHEREAS the Proceedings allege, among other things, that the Settling Defendants and certain other Releasees participated in an unlawful conspiracy to fix, raise, maintain, and/or stabilize the price of ODD and ODD Products in Canada and/or to allocate markets and customers for the sale of ODD and ODD Products in Canada, from at least January 1, 2000 through December 31, 2010, contrary to Part VI of the Competition Act and the common law and/or the civil law;

C. AND WHEREAS the BC Action was certified as a class proceeding by order of the BC Court dated November 1, 2016, which certification was affirmed by the BC Court of Appeal on August 18, 2017 and by the Supreme Court of Canada on September 20, 2019;

D. AND WHEREAS the BC certification order was amended to certify a Canada-wide class, defined as:

E. AND WHEREAS the Ontario Court, on consent of the parties to the Ontario Action has stayed the Ontario Action;

F. AND WHEREAS the Releasees do not admit, through the execution of this Settlement Agreement or otherwise, any allegation of unlawful or otherwise actionable conduct alleged in the Proceedings or any Other Actions or otherwise;

G. AND WHEREAS the Plaintiffs, Class Counsel and the Settling Defendants agree that neither this Settlement Agreement nor any statement made in the negotiation thereof shall be deemed or construed to be an admission by or evidence against the Releasees or evidence of the truth of any of the Plaintiffs' allegations against the Settling Defendants and other Releasees, which the Releasees expressly deny;

H. AND WHEREAS despite their belief that they are not liable in respect of the claims as alleged in the Proceedings or any Other Actions and have good and reasonable defences in respect of jurisdiction and the merits, the Settling Defendants are entering into this Settlement Agreement in order to achieve a final and nationwide resolution of all claims asserted or which could have been asserted against the Releasees by the Plaintiffs and the Settlement Classes in the Proceedings and any Other Actions, and to avoid further expense and inconvenience, the distraction of burdensome and protracted litigation, and the risks associated with trials and appeals;

I. AND WHEREAS the Releasees do not hereby attorn to the jurisdiction of the Courts or any other court or tribunal in respect of any civil, criminal or administrative process except to the extent they have previously done so in the Proceedings and as is expressly provided in this Settlement Agreement with respect to the Proceedings;

J. AND WHEREAS Counsel for the Settling Defendants and Class Counsel have engaged in arms-length settlement discussions and negotiations, resulting in this Settlement Agreement, which embodies all of the terms and conditions of the settlement between the Settling Defendants and the Plaintiffs, both individually and on behalf of the Settlement Classes the Plaintiffs seek to represent;

AND WHEREAS the Plaintiffs and Class Counsel have reviewed and fully understand the terms of this Settlement Agreement and, based on their analyses of the facts and law applicable to the Plaintiffs' claims, and having regard to the burdens and expense in prosecuting the Proceedings, including the risks and uncertainties associated with trials and appeals, and having regard to the value of this Settlement Agreement, the Plaintiffs and Class Counsel have concluded that this Settlement Agreement is fair, reasonable and in the best interests of the Plaintiffs and the Settlement Classes the Plaintiffs seek to represent;

L. AND WHEREAS the Parties therefore wish to, and hereby do, finally resolve on a national basis, without admission of liability, all of the Proceedings as against the Settling Defendants;

M. AND WHEREAS the Parties consent to certification or authorization of (i) the BC and Quebec Proceedings as class proceedings, (ii) the Settlement Classes and (iii) the Common Issue in respect of the BC and Quebec Actions as against the Settling Defendants for the sole purpose of implementing this Settlement Agreement and contingent on approvals by the Courts as provided for in this Settlement Agreement, on the express understanding that such certification or authorization shall not derogate from the respective rights of the Parties in the event that this Settlement Agreement is not approved, is terminated or otherwise fails to take effect for any reason;

N. AND WHEREAS the BC and Quebec Plaintiffs assert that they are adequate class representatives for the Settlement Classes and will seek to be appointed representative plaintiffs in their respective Proceedings;

O. AND WHEREAS the Settlement Class Members were permitted an opportunity to opt out of the Proceedings, the deadline to opt out of the Proceedings has passed, and no Persons validly and timely exercised the right to opt out;

P. AND WHEREAS the Settling Defendants shall pay the Settlement Amount in consideration of the covenants, agreements, and release set forth herein, and the Plaintiffs and the Settling Defendants agree that the Settlement Amount does not represent any amounts attributable to punitive damages that could have been awarded against the Settling Defendants in the Proceedings.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the covenants, agreements and releases set forth herein and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, it is agreed by the Parties that the Ontario Action and BC Action be settled and dismissed with prejudice against the Settling Defendants named in each Proceeding, and the Quebec Action be declared settled out of court with prejudice and without reservation against the Settling Defendants, all without costs as to the Plaintiffs, the Settlement Classes the Plaintiffs seek to represent and the Releasees, subject to the approval of the Courts, on the following terms and conditions:

- (a) electronic copies of any Documents (including transactional data) that were produced in the U.S. Litigation by the Settling Defendants including, but not limited to, any such Documents provided to U.S. plaintiffs pursuant to any U.S. Settlement Agreements and any pre-existing translations of such documents;
- (b) to the extent that transactional sales and costs data of the Settling Defendants is contained in the production delivered pursuant to Section 4.1(2)(a), bates numbers and/or file name identifying the relevant records;

- (c) electronic copies of transcripts of all depositions or other testimony of current or former employees, officers or directors of the Settling Defendants taken in the U.S. Litigation, including (to the extent they form part of the transcripts or can otherwise be readily located) all exhibits originating from the Settling Defendants, any pre-existing translations, corresponding errata sheets, and confidentiality designation letters, delivered as a separate production from the documents to be delivered pursuant to Section 4.1(2)(a) or identified by bates number as part of the production of documents to be delivered pursuant to Section 4.1(2)(a);
 - (d) electronic copies of any responses to written interrogatories by the Settling Defendants in the U.S. Litigation, including all schedules thereto and any pre-existing translations into English of those responses produced to the plaintiffs in the U.S. Litigation, delivered as a separate production from the documents to be delivered pursuant to Section 4.1(2)(a) or identified by bates number as part of the production of documents to be delivered pursuant to Section 4.1(2)(a);
 - (e) electronic copies of any responses to requests to admit by the Settling Defendants in the U.S. Litigation, including all schedules thereto and any pre-existing translations into English of those responses produced to the plaintiffs in the U.S. Litigation, delivered as a separate production from the documents to be delivered pursuant to Section 4.1(2)(a) or identified by bates number as part of the production of documents to be delivered pursuant to Section 4.1(2)(a);
 - (f) electronic copies of any declarations or affidavits of current or former employees, officers or directors of the Settling Defendants, including all schedules thereto and any pre-existing translations of those declarations or affidavits, in the U.S. Litigation or produced in the U.S. Litigation, delivered as a separate production from the documents to be delivered pursuant to Section 4.1(2)(a) or identified by bates number as part of the production of documents to be delivered pursuant to Section 4.1(2)(a);
 - (g) electronic copies of any Documents previously produced by the Settling Defendants to the Canadian Competition Bureau, the United States Department of Justice or the European Commission that are relevant to the allegations in the Proceedings (excluding Documents created for the purpose of being so provided), and any pre-existing translations of such Documents; and
 - (h) reasonable assistance in understanding the transactional sales and cost data produced by the Settling Defendants pursuant to Section 4.1(2) or otherwise in the Proceedings.
- (3) The obligation to provide Documents pursuant to Section 4.1(2) shall be a continuing obligation to the extent Documents that are required to be provided under Section 4.1(2) are identified by the Settling Defendants following the initial productions pursuant to this Settlement

Agreement, but in no event shall the Settling Defendants be obliged to provide Documents in addition to those listed in Section 4.1(2).

(4) As to additional Documents in the Settling Defendants' possession, custody, or control, the Settling Defendants will consider in good faith, but without obligation, any reasonable request by the Plaintiffs to collect and produce such documents, provided the request would not impose an undue burden on the Settling Defendants.

(5) Documents provided to Class Counsel in accordance with this Section 4.1(2) will be provided in the format in which they were produced in the U.S. Litigation, to the Canadian Competition Bureau, the United States Department of Justice or the European Commission, and will include any pre-existing and non-privileged electronic coding. In addition, where the documents previously produced in the U.S. Litigation contain bates stamps on their face, a field will be produced containing the corresponding bates stamps of the first page of each document.

(6) Nothing in this Settlement Agreement shall require or be construed to require the Releasees, or any of their present, former or future officers, directors or employees to perform any act, including the production or disclosure of any Documents or information:

- (a) which would violate or breach any federal, provincial, state, local or foreign law (including without limitation, any privacy or bank secrecy law, and including common law, civil law, statutes, policies, rules and regulations);
- (b) which would violate or breach any Court or regulatory order, directive, instruction (including, without limitation, any protective order granted in the U.S. Litigation, and instructions or directives from the U.S. Department of Justice or any other regulatory authority or governmental body in Canada, the United States, the United Kingdom or any other jurisdiction), in any applicable jurisdiction, including but not limited to Canada, and the United States;
- (c) which is subject to solicitor-client privilege, litigation privilege or any other privilege, doctrine or law; or
- (d) not within the possession, custody or control of the Releasees;

(7) If Counsel for the Settling Defendants have produced a relevant privilege log in the U.S. Litigation, the Settling Defendants will provide Class Counsel with a copy of such log.

(8) If any Documents protected by any privilege and/or any privacy law or other order, regulatory directive, rule or law of this or any applicable jurisdiction including but not limited to Canada and the United States are accidentally or inadvertently produced, such Documents shall be promptly returned to the Settling Defendants and the Documents and the information contained therein shall not be disclosed or used directly or indirectly, except with the express written permission of the Settling Defendants, and the production of such Documents shall in no way be construed to have waived in any manner any privilege or protection attached to such Documents.

(9) Subject to the rules of evidence, any Court order with regard to confidentiality and the other provisions of this Settlement Agreement, the Settling Defendants agree to use reasonable efforts to provide or obtain affidavits for use at trial or otherwise in the Proceedings for the sole purpose of supporting the submission into evidence of any information, transactional data and/or Documents provided by the Settling Defendants in accordance with this Settlement Agreement or as otherwise produced by the Settling Defendants in the Proceedings. If, and only if, a Court should determine that affidavits are inadequate for the purpose of submitting into evidence of the information, transactional data and/or Documents produced by the Settling Defendants, the Settling Defendants agree to use reasonable efforts to make available for testimony at trial or otherwise appropriate current officers, directors and/or employees of the Settling Defendants for the purpose of admitting into evidence any information, transactional data and/or Documents provided by the Settling Defendants to Class Counsel pursuant to Section 4 herein. The Plaintiffs will work to minimize any burden on the Settling Defendants pursuant to this section.

(10) The obligations of the Settling Defendants to cooperate as particularized in this Section 4 shall not be affected by the release provisions contained in Section 7.1 of this Settlement Agreement. If Class Counsel reach a settlement with all of the Non-Settling Defendants and any such settlement becomes effective in accordance with its terms or obtain final judgment against each of them in each of the Proceedings, then all obligations under this Section 4 shall cease and this Section 4 shall be of no further force or effect. For greater certainty, the Plaintiffs' failure to strictly enforce any of the deadlines for the Settling Defendants to provide cooperation pursuant to this Section 4 is not a waiver of the cooperation rights granted by Section 4.

(11) The Plaintiffs may exercise any rights they have to seek to obtain discovery in the Proceedings as against knowledgeable officers, directors and/or employees of the Settling Defendants, if such individual(s) fails to cooperate in accordance with Subsection 4.1(9) and the provisions of this Settlement Agreement.

(12) Subject to Sections 4.1(11) and 4.1(13), the provisions set forth in this Section 4.1 are the exclusive means by which the Plaintiffs, Class Counsel and Settlement Class Members may obtain discovery or information or Documents from the Releasees or their current or former officers, directors, employees, agents or counsel. The Plaintiffs, Class Counsel and Settlement Class Members agree that they shall not pursue any other means of discovery against, or seek to compel the evidence of, the Releasees or their current or former officers, directors, employees, agents or counsel, whether in Canada or elsewhere and whether under the rules or laws of this or any other Canadian or foreign jurisdiction.

(13) In the event that the Settling Defendants materially breach this Section 4.1, the Plaintiffs may move before the Courts to enforce the terms of this Settlement Agreement, seek an order setting aside Section 4.1(12) and allowing the Plaintiffs to obtain discovery or information from the Settling Defendants as if the Settling Defendants remained parties to the Proceeding, or seek such other remedy that is available at law.

(14) A material factor influencing the decision by the Settling Defendants to execute this Settlement Agreement is their desire to limit the burden and expense of this litigation. Accordingly, the Plaintiffs and Class Counsel agree to exercise good faith in seeking cooperation from the Settling Defendants, agree to avoid seeking information that is unnecessary, cumulative or duplicative and agree otherwise to avoid imposing undue, unreasonable or disproportionate burden or expense on the Releasees.

(15) The scope of the Settling Defendants' cooperation under this Settlement Agreement shall be limited to an alleged conspiracy to fix, raise, maintain or stabilize prices, allocate markets or customers or restrict output or capacity, of ODD and ODD Products sold in Canada during the Class Period.

4.2 Intervention in the U.S. Litigation

(1) The Settling Defendants shall not oppose any application by or on behalf of the Plaintiffs to: (1) intervene in the U.S. Litigation in order to gain access to discovery Documents and other Documents and information subject to the stipulated Protective Order granted in the U.S. Litigation that are relevant to the Proceedings, provided such application is not otherwise inconsistent with the terms of this Settlement Agreement, including Section 4.1 and in particular 4.1(12); or (2) compel a U.S. resident to "give his testimony or statement or to produce a document or other thing for use in a proceeding in a foreign or international tribunal" pursuant to Title 28 of the United States Code §1782 for the prosecution of the Proceedings, provided such application is not otherwise inconsistent with the terms of this Settlement Agreement, including Section 4.1, and in particular 4.1(12). However, it is agreed that the Settling Defendants have no obligation to bring or otherwise participate in such an application.

4.3 Limits on Use of Documents

(1) It is understood and agreed that all Documents and information made available or provided by the Settling Defendants to the Plaintiffs and Class Counsel under this Settlement Agreement, including under Section 4.1, shall be used only in connection with the prosecution of the claims in the Proceedings, and shall not be used directly or indirectly for any other purpose, except to the extent that the Documents or information are or become publicly available.

(2) The Plaintiffs and Class Counsel agree they will not disclose, produce or file any Documents or information provided by the Settling Defendants, whether pursuant to this Settlement Agreement or pursuant to the Settling Defendants' production obligations in the B.C. Action, beyond what is reasonably necessary for the prosecution of the Proceedings or as otherwise required by law, and that any disclosure shall be in compliance with Section 4.3(4). The Plaintiffs and Class Counsel acknowledge that they are bound by the implied and deemed undertaking rule in British Columbia and the equivalent rules in other provinces or territories, except to the extent that the Documents or information are or become publicly available. Class Counsel shall take reasonable precautions to ensure and maintain the confidentiality of such Documents and information, and of any work product of Class Counsel that discloses such Documents and information.

(3) Moreover, neither Class Counsel, nor anyone currently or hereafter employed by, or a partner with Class Counsel, may divulge to anyone for any purpose, or use for any purpose, any information obtained in the course of the Proceedings or the negotiation and preparation of this Settlement Agreement, except to the extent such information is or becomes otherwise publicly available or unless ordered to do so by a court or as otherwise provided in this Section 4.

(4) If, in the course of the Proceedings, the Plaintiffs or Class Counsel, acting reasonably, conclude that it is reasonably necessary to disclose or produce or file Documents obtained from the Releasees, whether pursuant to this Settlement Agreement or pursuant to the Settling Defendants' production obligations in the B.C. Action, and:

- (a) such disclosure is not otherwise prohibited by the Settlement Agreement; and
- (b) there is not already a confidentiality order issued in any of the Proceedings that applies to the Documents and information provided (if there is already a confidentiality order issued, that order shall govern),

Class Counsel shall provide Counsel for the Settling Defendants with advance written description of the Documents or information sought to be disclosed, produced or filed, promptly and in any event at least thirty (30) days in advance of the proposed disclosure, production or filing, in order that the Settling Defendants or other Releasees may bring a motion for the purpose of obtaining a sealing or confidentiality order or similar relief, or take such steps as they deem necessary to protect their interests in respect of such Documents or information.

(5) If, in the course of the Proceedings, a Person requests disclosure or production of Documents or information obtained from the Releasees whether pursuant to this Settlement Agreement or pursuant to the Settling Defendants' production obligations in the B.C. Action (whether or not the Person applies for an order), and:

- (a) such disclosure is not otherwise prohibited by the Settlement Agreement;
- (b) there is not already a confidentiality order issued in any of the Proceedings that applies to the Documents and information provided (if there is already a confidentiality order issued, that order shall govern),

Class Counsel shall promptly provide Counsel for the Settling Defendants with advance written description of the Documents or information that is the subject of the request for disclosure or production, in order that the Settling Defendants or other Releasees may bring a motion for the purpose of obtaining a sealing or confidentiality order or similar relief, or take such steps as they deem necessary to protect their interests in respect of such Documents or information.

(6) If the Settling Defendants or other Releasees bring a motion under Section 4.3(4) or 4.3(5) of this Settlement Agreement to obtain a sealing or confidentiality order or similar relief, the Plaintiffs and Class Counsel:

- (a) shall not oppose reasonable positions taken by the Settling Defendants or other Releasees;
- (b) shall not consent to disclosure or production or an order granting similar relief;
- (c) shall not disclose, produce or file the Documents or information until such motion has been decided and all applicable appeal periods have expired, unless otherwise ordered by a Court and subject to Section 4.3(6)(d); and
- (d) may provide, on an interim basis, Documents to counsel for the Non-Settling Defendants provided that counsel for the Non-Settling Defendants agree and give assurances in writing that, until the motion brought by the Settling Defendants or other Releasees has been decided and all applicable appeal periods have expired, the Documents or information will remain with external counsel for the Non-Settling Defendants and will only be disclosed to independent expert(s) retained by a Non-Settling Defendant for the purposes of the Proceedings, as well as secretarial, clerical or other support personnel of such expert(s) to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary and who agree in advance in writing to be bound by the same confidentiality and destruction obligations set out in Section 4 and Section 6.2(1)(d). An independent expert may not be an employee of a Plaintiff or Defendant in the Proceedings or a competitor of the Settling Defendants.

SECTION 5– DISTRIBUTION OF THE SETTLEMENT AMOUNT AND ACCRUED INTEREST

5.1 Distribution Protocol

(1) After the Effective Date, at a time wholly within the discretion of Class Counsel, but on notice to the Settling Defendants, Class Counsel will make an application seeking orders from the Courts approving the Distribution Protocol.

(2) The Distribution Protocol shall require Settlement Class Members seeking compensation to give credit for any compensation received through other proceedings or in out-of-class settlements, unless by such proceedings or out-of-class settlements the Settlement Class Member's claim was released in its entirety, in which case the Settlement Class Member shall be deemed ineligible for any further compensation.

5.2 No Responsibility for Administration or Fees

- (1) Subject to section 6.3, the Releasees shall not have any responsibility, financial obligations or liability whatsoever with respect to:
- (a) the investment, distribution or administration of monies in the Trust Account including, but not limited to, Administration Expenses, Class Counsel Disbursements and Class Counsel Fees; or
 - (b) the administration of the Distribution Protocol.

SECTION 6– NON-APPROVAL OR TERMINATION OF SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

6.1 Right of Termination

- (1) In the event that:
- (a) the BC Court or the Quebec Court declines to certify or authorize the applicable Proceeding for settlement purposes as against the Settling Defendants or does so in a materially modified form;
 - (b) the BC Court declines to dismiss the BC Action against the Settling Defendants named in the BC Action;
 - (c) the Ontario Court declines to dismiss the Ontario Action against the Settling Defendants named in the Ontario Action;
 - (d) the Quebec Court declines to declare settled out of court the Quebec Action against the Settling Defendants;
 - (e) the BC or Quebec Court declines to approve this Settlement Agreement or any material part hereof;
 - (f) the BC or Quebec Court approves this Settlement Agreement in a materially modified form;
 - (g) any orders approving this Settlement Agreement made by the BC or Quebec Courts do not become Final Orders or are issued in a materially modified form or are materially inconsistent with the terms of this Settlement Agreement; or
 - (h) the Settlement Amount is not paid in accordance with Section 3.1(1);

the Plaintiffs and the Settling Defendants shall have the right to terminate this Settlement Agreement, except only the Plaintiffs shall have the right to terminate this Settlement Agreement under Subsection (h) and only the Settling Defendants shall have the right to terminate this Settlement Agreement under Subsections (b), (c) and (d). The right to terminate shall be exercised by delivering a written notice within thirty (30) days following an event described above.

(2) Except as provided for in Section 6.4, if the Settling Defendants or the Plaintiffs exercise their right to terminate, this Settlement Agreement shall be null and void and have no further force or effect, shall not be binding on the Parties, and shall not be used as evidence or otherwise in any litigation or in any other way for any reason.

(3) Any order, ruling or determination made (or rejected) by any Court with respect to:

- (a) Class Counsel Fees or Class Counsel Disbursements; or
- (b) the Distribution Protocol, shall not be deemed to be a material modification of all, or a part, of this Settlement Agreement and shall not provide any basis for the termination of this Settlement Agreement.

6.2 If Settlement Agreement is Terminated

(1) If this Settlement Agreement is not approved by the Courts, is terminated in accordance with its terms or otherwise fails to take effect for any reason:

- (a) no motion to certify or authorize the BC or Quebec Actions as a class proceeding on the basis of this Settlement Agreement, or to approve this Settlement Agreement, which has not been decided, shall proceed;
- (b) the Parties will cooperate in seeking to have any issued BC or Quebec order certifying or authorizing the applicable Proceeding as a class proceeding on the basis of the Settlement Agreement, or approving this Settlement Agreement, set aside and declared null and void and of no force or effect, and anyone shall be estopped from asserting otherwise;
- (c) any prior certification or authorization of the BC or Quebec Proceedings as a class proceeding on the basis of this Settlement Agreement, including the definitions of the Settlement Class and the Common Issue, shall be without prejudice to any position that any of the Parties or Releasees may later take on any issue in the Proceedings or any other litigation;
- (d) within ten (10) days of such termination having occurred, Class Counsel shall make reasonable efforts to destroy all Documents or other materials provided by the Settling Defendants or other Releasees under this Settlement Agreement or containing or reflecting information derived from such Documents or other materials. To the extent Class Counsel has disclosed any Documents or information provided by the Settling Defendants or Releasees to any other Person,

Class Counsel shall endeavour to recover and destroy such Documents or information. Class Counsel shall provide Counsel for the Settling Defendants with a written certification of such destruction by Class Counsel. Nothing contained in this Section 6.2 shall be construed to require Class Counsel to destroy any of their work product or any Documents previously produced by the Settling Defendants as part of their discovery obligations. However, any Documents or information provided by or received from the Settling Defendants or Releasees in connection with this Settlement Agreement may not be disclosed to any Person in any manner or used, directly or indirectly, by Class Counsel or any other Person in any way for any reason, without the express prior written permission of the Settling Defendants. Class Counsel shall take appropriate steps and precautions to ensure and maintain the confidentiality of such Documents, information and any work product of Class Counsel; and

- (e) until such time as a confidentiality order is in place in the Proceedings that applies to the Documents previously provided by the Settling Defendants pursuant to their production obligations in the BC Action, Class Counsel shall continue to maintain such Documents on the terms pursuant to which they were produced by the Settling Defendants or such other terms as may be agreed upon by the Parties.

6.3 Allocation of Monies in the Trust Account Following Termination

(1) If the Settlement Agreement is terminated, BC Counsel or the Claims Administrator, as the case may be, shall within thirty (30) days of the written notice pursuant to Section 6.1(1) return to the Settling Defendants the Settlement Amount, plus all accrued interest thereon and less any taxes paid on interest, less the Settling Defendants' proportional share (to a maximum of $50,000 for the Settling Defendants collectively) of any costs actually incurred or payable with respect to notices required by Section 11.1 and any costs actually incurred or payable with respect to any translations required under Section 14.11.

6.4 Survival of Provisions After Termination

(1) If this Settlement Agreement is not approved, is terminated, or otherwise fails to take effect for any reason, Sections 3.1(7), 3.2(5), 5.2 (in so far as it relates to the investment, distribution or administration of monies in the Trust Account, including Administration Expenses, or administration of the distribution protocol), 6.1(2), 6.2, 6.3, 6.4, 9.1, 9.2, 10.1(4), 11.1(3), 11.2, 12.2(7), 13.3 (in so far as it relates to Administration Expenses or any lien of any person on any payment to any settlement class member from the settlement amount), 14.1, 14.2, 14.3, 14.4, 14.5, 14.6, 14.7, 14.8, 14.9, 14.10, 14.11, 14.12, 14.13, 14.15, 14.16 and 14.17, and the definitions applicable thereto (but only for the limited purpose of the interpretation of those sections) shall survive the termination and continue in full force and effect. All other provisions of this Settlement Agreement and all other obligations pursuant to this Settlement Agreement shall cease immediately.

SECTION 7– RELEASES AND DISMISSALS

7.1 Release of Releasees

(1) Upon the Effective Date, subject to Section 7.2, and in consideration of payment of the Settlement Amount and other valuable consideration set forth in the Settlement Agreement, the Releasers:

- (a) shall finally, fully, forever and absolutely waive, release, relinquish and discharge the Releasees from the Released Claims that any of them, whether directly, indirectly, derivatively, or in any other capacity, ever had, now have, or hereafter can, shall, or may have;
- (b) shall forever be enjoined from prosecuting in any forum any Released Claim against any of the Releasees; and
- (c) agree or covenant not to sue any of the Releasees on the basis of any Released Claims or to assist any third party in commencing or maintaining any suit against any of the Releasees related in any way to any Released Claim.

(2) The Plaintiffs and Settlement Class Members acknowledge that they may hereafter discover facts in addition to, or different from, those facts which they know or believe to be true regarding the subject matter of the Settlement Agreement, and it is their intention to release fully, finally and forever all Released Claims and, in furtherance of such intention; this release shall be and remain in effect notwithstanding the discovery or existence of additional or different facts.

7.2 Covenant Not To Sue

(1) Notwithstanding Section 7.1, upon the Effective Date, for any Settlement Class Members resident in any province or territory where the release of one tortfeasor is a release of all other tortfeasors, the Releasers do not release the Releasees but instead covenant and undertake not to make any claim in any way or to threaten, commence, institute, prosecute, participate in, maintain or continue any proceeding in any jurisdiction against the Releasees in respect of or in relation to the Released Claims, whether on their own behalf or as part of any putative, purported or certified class of purchasers or consumers.

7.3 No Further Claims

(1) Upon the Effective Date, the Releasers shall not now or hereafter institute, continue, provide assistance for, intervene in, maintain or assert, either directly or indirectly, whether in Canada or elsewhere, on their own behalf or on behalf of any class or any other Person, any action, suit, cause of action, claim or demand against any Releasee or any other Person who may claim contribution or indemnity, or other claims over relief, from any Releasee, whether pursuant to the Negligence Act, RSBC 1996, c. 333, Civil Code of Quebec or other legislation or common law or in equity, in respect of any Released Claim, except for the continuation of the Proceedings against the Non-Settling Defendants, named or unnamed alleged co-conspirators that are not Releasees or, if the BC Action is decertified or the Quebec Action is not authorized with respect to the NonSettling Defendants, the continuation of the claims asserted in the Proceedings on an individual basis or otherwise against any Non-Settling Defendant or unnamed co-conspirator that is not a Releasee. For greater certainty, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Releasors shall not assert or pursue a Released Claim against any Releasee under the laws of any foreign jurisdiction.

7.4 Dismissal of the Proceedings

- (1) Upon the Effective Date, the BC Action and the Ontario Action shall be dismissed with prejudice and without costs as against the Settling Defendants named in each Proceeding.
- (2) Upon the Effective Date, the Quebec Action shall be declared settled out of court with prejudice and without costs and without reservation as against the Settling Defendants.

7.5 Dismissal of Other Actions

- (1) Upon the Effective Date, each Settlement Class Member shall be deemed to irrevocably consent to the dismissal, without costs and with prejudice, of his, her or its Other Actions against the Releasees.
- (2) Upon the Effective Date, all Other Actions commenced in British Columbia by any Settlement Class Member shall be dismissed against the Releasees, without costs and with prejudice.

7.6 Material Term

- (1) For the avoidance of doubt and without in any way limiting the ability of the Parties to assert that other terms in this Settlement Agreement are material terms (subject to Section 6.1(3)), the provisions in this Section 7 shall be considered a material term of the Settlement Agreement and the failure of any Court to approve such provisions shall give rise to a right of termination pursuant to Section 6.1 of the Settlement Agreement.

SECTION 8– BAR ORDER AND WAIVER OF SOLIDARITY ORDER

8.1 British Columbia Bar Orders

- (1) Class Counsel shall obtain bar orders from the BC Court providing for the following:
 - (a) to the extent such claims are recognized at law all claims for contribution, indemnity or other claims over, whether asserted, unasserted or asserted in a representative capacity, inclusive of interest, taxes and costs, relating to the Released Claims, which were or could have been brought in the Proceedings or any Other Actions, or otherwise, by any Non-Settling Defendant, any named or unnamed co-conspirator that is not a Releasee, any Settled Defendant or any other Person or party against a Releasee, or by a Releasee against any Non-Settling Defendant, any named or unnamed co conspirator that is not a Releasee, any Settled Defendant, or any other Person or party, are barred, prohibited and enjoined;

- (b) if the BC Court ultimately determines that a claim for contribution and indemnity or other claim over, whether in equity or in law, by statute or otherwise, is a legally recognized claim:
 - i) the BC Plaintiff and Settlement Class Members shall not be entitled to claim or recover from the Non-Settling Defendants, named or unnamed co-conspirators and/or any other Person or party that is not a Releasee, that portion of any damages (including punitive damages, if any), restitutionary award, disgorgement of profits, interest and costs (including investigative costs claimed pursuant to section 36 of the Competition Act) that corresponds to the Proportionate Liability of the Releasees proven at trial or otherwise;
 - ii) the BC Plaintiff and Settlement Class Members shall limit their claims against the Non-Settling Defendants and/or named or unnamed co-conspirators and/or any other Person or party that is not a Releasee to include only, and shall only seek to recover from the Non-Settling Defendants and/or named or unnamed co-conspirators and/or any other Person or party that is not a Releasee, those claims for damages (including punitive damages, if any), restitution, disgorgement of profits, costs, and interest attributable to the aggregate of the several liability of the Non-Settling Defendants and/or named or unnamed co-conspirators and/or any other Person or party that is not a Releasee, if any, and, for greater certainty, the BC Plaintiff and Settlement Class Members shall be entitled to claim and seek to recover on a joint and several basis as between the Non-Settling Defendants and/or named or unnamed co conspirators and/or any other Person or party that is not a Releasee, if permitted by law; and
 - iii) the BC Court shall have full authority to determine the Proportionate Liability of the Releasees at the trial or other disposition of the BC Action, whether or not the Releasees remain in the BC Action or appear at the trial or other disposition, and the Proportionate Liability of the Releasees shall be determined as if the Releasees are parties to the BC Action and any determination

by the BC Court, in respect of the Proportionate Liability of the Releasees shall only apply in the BC Action and shall not be binding in any other proceeding;

- (c) a Non-Settling Defendant may, on application to the BC Court, and on at least twenty (20) days' notice to Counsel for the Settling Defendants, seek orders for the following:
 - i) documentary discovery and a list of documents from the Settling Defendants in accordance with the BC Court's rules of procedure;
 - ii) oral discovery of a representative of the Settling Defendants, the transcript of which may be read in at trial;
 - iii) leave to serve a notice to admit on the Settling Defendants in respect of factual matters; and/or
 - iv) the production of a representative of the Settling Defendants to testify at trial, with such witness to be subject to cross-examination by counsel for the Non-Settling Defendants;
- (d) the Settling Defendants retain all rights to oppose any application brought pursuant to Section 8.1(1)(c), including any such application brought at trial seeking an order requiring the Settling Defendants to produce a representative to testify at trial. Moreover, nothing herein restricts the Settling Defendants from seeking a protective order to maintain confidentiality and protection of proprietary information in respect of Documents to be provided and/or information obtained from discovery in accordance with Section 8.1(1)(c);
- (e) on any application brought pursuant to Section 8.1(1)(c), the BC Court may make such orders as to costs and other terms as it considers appropriate;
- (f) to the extent that such an order is granted and discovery is provided to a Non Settling Defendant, a copy of all discovery provided, whether oral or documentary in nature, shall be provided by the Settling Defendants to the Plaintiffs and Class Counsel within ten (10) days of such discovery being provided to a Non-Settling Defendant;
- (g) the BC Court will retain an ongoing supervisory role over the discovery process and the Settling Defendants will attorn to the jurisdiction of the BC Court for these purposes only; and
- (h) a Non-Settling Defendant may effect service of the application(s) referred to in Section 8.1(1)(c), on a Settling Defendant by service on Counsel for the Settling Defendants.

8.2 Quebec Waiver or Renunciation of Solidarity Order

(1) The Parties agree that the Quebec order approving this Settlement Agreement pursuant to Section 2.3 must include a waiver or renunciation of solidarity in respect of the Quebec Action, which includes the following:

- (a) the Quebec Plaintiff and the Settlement Class Members expressly waive and renounce the benefit of solidarity against the Non-Settling Defendants with respect to the facts, deeds or other conduct of the Releasees relating to the Released Claims;
- (b) the Quebec Plaintiff and the Settlement Class Members shall henceforth only be able to claim and recover damages, including punitive damages, interest and costs (including investigative costs claimed pursuant to section 36 of the Competition Act) attributable to the conduct of the Non-Settling Defendants, the sales by the Non-Settling Defendants, and/or other applicable measures of proportionate liability of the Non-Settling Defendants;
- (c) any claims in warranty or any other claim or joinder of parties to obtain any contribution or indemnity from the Releasees or relating to the Released Claims shall be inadmissible and void in the context of the Quebec Action; and
- (d) the ability of Non-Settling Defendants to seek discovery from the Settling Defendants shall be determined according to the provisions of the Quebec Code of Civil Procedure, and the Settling Defendants shall retain and reserve all of their rights to oppose such discovery under the Quebec Code of Civil Procedure.

8.3 Claims Against Other Entities Reserved

(1) Except as provided herein, this Settlement Agreement does not settle, compromise, release or limit in any way whatsoever any claim by Releasers against any Person other than the Releasees.

8.4 Material Term

(1) For the avoidance of doubt and without in any way limiting the ability of the Parties to assert that other terms in this Settlement Agreement are material terms (subject to Section 6.1(3)), the Parties acknowledge that the provisions in this Section 8 shall be considered a material term of the Settlement Agreement and the failure of any Court to approve such provisions shall give rise to a right of termination pursuant to Section 6.1 of the Settlement Agreement.

(2) Notwithstanding the foregoing, Subsections 8.1(1)(c) and 8.2(1)(d) shall not be considered a material term of this Settlement Agreement and the failure of any Court to approve a bar order provision corresponding to Subsections 8.1(1)(c) and 8.2(1)(d) shall not give rise to a right to termination pursuant to Section 6.1 of the Settlement Agreement.

SECTION 9– EFFECT OF SETTLEMENT

9.1 No Admission of Liability

(1) The Plaintiffs and the Releasees expressly reserve all of their rights if the Settlement Agreement is not approved, is terminated or otherwise fails to take effect for any reason. Further, whether or not this Settlement Agreement is finally approved, is terminated, or otherwise fails to take effect for any reason, this Settlement Agreement and anything contained herein, and any and all negotiations, Documents, discussions and proceedings associated with this Settlement Agreement, and any action taken to carry out this Settlement Agreement, shall not be deemed, construed or interpreted to be an admission of any violation of any statute or law, or of any wrongdoing or liability by the Releasees, or of the truth of any of the claims or allegations contained in the Proceedings or any other pleading filed by the Plaintiffs.

9.2 Agreement Not Evidence

(1) The Parties agree that, whether or not it is not approved, terminated or otherwise fails to take effect for any reason, this Settlement Agreement and anything contained herein, and any and all negotiations, Documents, discussions and proceedings associated with this Settlement Agreement, and any action taken to carry out this Settlement Agreement, shall not be referred to, offered as evidence or received in evidence in any pending or future civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding, except in a proceeding to approve and/or enforce this Settlement Agreement, to defend against the assertion of Released Claims or claims precluded by the bar orders in Section 8, as otherwise required by law or as provided in this Settlement Agreement.

SECTION 10– CERTIFICATION OR AUTHORIZATION FOR SETTLEMENT ONLY

10.1 Settlement Class and Common Issue

- (1) The Parties agree that the BC and Quebec Actions shall be certified or authorized as class proceedings as against the Settling Defendants solely for purposes of settlement of the Proceedings in respect of the Settling Defendants and the approval of this Settlement Agreement by the Courts, and such certification or authorization shall not be used or relied on as against the Releasees for any other purpose or in any other Proceeding.
- (2) The Parties agree that in the motions for certification or authorization of the BC and Quebec Proceedings as class proceedings and for the approval of this Settlement Agreement the only common issue that the BC and Quebec Plaintiffs and BC and Quebec Class Counsel will seek to define is the Common Issue and the only classes that the BC and Quebec Plaintiffs and BC and Quebec Class Counsel will assert are the Settlement Classes.

- (4) The Releasees retain all of their available objections, arguments, and defences with respect to class certification or authorization, and reserve all rights if the settlement set forth in this Settlement Agreement does not receive Court approval, if Court approval is reversed or vacated on appeal, or if this Settlement Agreement is terminated or fails to take effect for any reason. The information shall be delivered in Microsoft Excel or such other format as may be agreed upon by Counsel for the Settling Defendants and Class Counsel, and shall be delivered as a separate production from the Documents delivered pursuant to Section 4.1(2) or identified by bates number within the production of Documents delivered pursuant to Section 4.1(2). - (b) to advise Persons in Canada who purchased ODD and/or ODD Products from the Settling Defendants of any subsequent settlement agreement reached in the Proceedings, any related approval hearings, and any other major steps in the Proceedings;
- (c) to facilitate the claims administration process with respect to this Settlement Agreement and any other settlement agreement and/or Court award achieved in the Proceedings; and
- (d) as otherwise authorized in Section 4.

(4) All information provided by the Settling Defendants pursuant to Section 12.2(1) shall be dealt with in accordance with Section 4, except that Class Counsel may disclose all information provided by the Settling Defendants pursuant to Section 12.2(1) to any Court-appointed notice provider and/or any Court-appointed Claims Administrator, to the extent reasonably necessary for the purposes enumerated in Section 12.2(3). Any Court-appointed notice provider and/or any Court-appointed Claims Administrator shall be bound by the same confidentiality obligations set out in Section 4.

(5) Counsel for the Settling Defendants will make themselves reasonably available to respond to questions respecting the information provided pursuant to Section 12.2 from Class Counsel or any Court-appointed notice provider and/or Court-appointed Claims Administrator. The obligations in this Section 12.2 shall not be affected by the release provisions contained in Section 7 of this Settlement Agreement. Unless this Settlement Agreement is not approved, is terminated or otherwise fails to take effect for any reason, the obligations in this Section 12.2 shall cease when the Proceedings are resolved as against all Defendants and all settlement funds or Court awards have been distributed.

(6) The Releasees cannot and do not warrant the accuracy or completeness of the information to be provided under this Section 12.2, and Plaintiffs and Class Counsel acknowledge being advised by the Settling Defendants that the information is likely to be incomplete. The Releasees shall bear no liability with respect to the completeness or accuracy of the information provided under this Section 12.2.

(7) If this Settlement Agreement is terminated, all information provided by the Settling Defendants pursuant to this Section 12.2 shall be dealt with in accordance with Subsections 6.2(1)(d) and/or 6.2(1)(e), as applicable, and no record of the information so provided pursuant to this Settlement Agreement shall be retained by Class Counsel, any Court-appointed notice provider and/or any Court-appointed Claims Administrator in any form whatsoever.

Notwithstanding any provision in this Order, on any application brought pursuant to paragraph 13 the Court may make such orders as to costs and other terms as it considers appropriate.

15. A Non-Settling Defendant may effect service of the application(s) referred to in paragraph 13 above on the Settling Defendants by service on their counsel of record in the BC Action.

17. Except as provided herein, this Order does not affect any claims or causes of action that any BC Settlement Class Member has or may have against the Non-Settling Defendants or unnamed co-conspirators who are not Releasees in the BC Action.

21. In the event that some of the Settlement Amount remains in the Trust Account after payment of Class Counsel Disbursements, Class Counsel Fees and Administrative Expenses, Class Counsel shall seek direction from this Court regarding the distribution of the remaining funds.

22. Approval of the Settlement Agreement is contingent upon approval by the Quebec Court, and the terms of this Order shall not be effective unless and until the Settlement Agreement is approved by the Quebec Court, the Quebec Action is declared settled out of court with prejudice and without costs and without reservation as against the Settling Defendants, and the Ontario Action has been dismissed with prejudice and without costs as against the Settling Defendants named in the Ontario Action. If such orders and declarations are not secured in Ontario and Quebec, this Order shall be null and void and without prejudice to the rights of the Parties to proceed with the BC Action and any agreement between the Parties incorporated in this Order shall be deemed in any subsequent proceedings to have been made without prejudice.

23. This Order shall be declared null and void on a subsequent application made on notice in the event that the Settlement Agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms.

24. Upon the Effective Date, the BC Action is hereby dismissed against the Settling Defendants named in the BC Action without costs and with prejudice.
